It is very rare to find a business whose services are delivered so efficiently, Company Partners and especially Cynthia Takawira made the whole registration process so easy and simple. every call to the company was always answered with the willingness to assist, from the reception to every division of the business.

The company also allows you to be able to track the status of each order on their very user friendly platform, which further puts you at ease that you are being assisted by highly professional people and an organisation that knows what it is doing.

They called back, followed up on processes and realistic time frames were always provided, even though these were met days in advance. A Big thank you to Cynthia and the team at Company Partners, I definitely recommend them to all those looking to start up their businesses.
